BYU–Hawaii is a comprehensive undergraduate institution founded in 1955 and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Located on the beautiful North Shore of Oahu, BYU–Hawaii offers an exceptional and unique blend of secular and spiritual education. This “total education” prepares students to become leaders in their countries, communities, and homes. BYU–Hawaii also offers a three-year graduation program allowing students to complete their degree in less time.

Affordable Education
The tuition cost per semester is $4,770 (for LDS students). Over 70% of BYU–Hawaii students receive some type of financial assistance including scholarships as well as need-based and Federal grants and loans. More than 1,700 student jobs are available at BYU–Hawaii and the neighboring Polynesian Cultural Center (#1 paid tourist attraction in Hawaii), allowing students to work part-time while earning a degree.
